From the Manager

Hello everyone, I'm Joedy McGraw and I am so happy and grateful to be back here at Cherokee as your Club manager! Having previously worked on the grounds crew and in the Pro Shop it has been nice to see many familiar faces and to be welcomed back so kindly.

I'd like to take this time to thank Tom Reilly for all his help during our transition. Managing a club such as ours is a complex job and we all owe Tom a bit of gratitude for his service to the Club – Thank you Tom! Thank you also to Janet Johnson and John Sewell for your help bringing me up to speed with all the day to day operational procedures in the Clubhouse. We have assembled a great team here at the Club as we also welcome our new Chef Tracy Christian! She has been doing a wonderful job, and has received many compliments.

For those that may not know me, it's hard to believe but this is my 21st year in the golf business. My golf career began at Athens C.C. in 1996 before moving on to the University of Georgia G.C. as an assistant Golf Professional. Over the years I've been fortunate to work at some wonderful clubs in various capacities – including that of Head Golf Professional, Superintendent, as well as General Manager and everything in between.

My wife Shellie works for the Social Security Administration and loves to play tennis and volunteer at our church, First Baptist of Lindale. We have two daughters – Daylee a freshman at University of West Ga. and Josie a junior at Pepperell H.S. who enjoys playing sports year round.

Enough about me – back to golf! This is absolutely my favorite time of the year to play! There's nothing better than getting in 9 or 18 holes on a brisk Saturday morning before watching some college football! Plus, our course is in about the best condition possible. Our bentgrass greens thrive in this cooler weather and our Bermuda tees and fairways are still lush and green!

The future is bright here at Cherokee G&CC and I look forward to seeing everyone out at the Club during this Thanksgiving season! Be sure to call ahead for your reservations on Thursdays and Sundays as well as for our Thanksgiving Day feast.

Joedy
